Dear John,

Just a few words to express our satisfaction with the search-engine keyword promotion that you recently ran for our company. In our trade, positioning and visibility is everything and being ranked in prime positions on major search engines is nothing short of amazing, and crucial to the success of this business. Your efficient and courteous responses and expert input throughout the process, were much appreciated, and we would highly recommend your company for anyone (but our competition!!).

Thanks once again, and looking forward to further success.

Sincerely,

Josh Feiner
